HPD Investigates Second Burglary at Same Business

Aug. 5, 2011

The Harrisonburg Police Department is investigating a second burglary that occurred at Rockingham Cooperative, 101 W. Grace St.

Last night around 9:20 p.m. officers responded to the business to begin investigating a burglary and property damage.

An unknown male broke an exterior window and display cases before stealing numerous firearms.

The male was last seen wearing a gray shirt and khaki shorts.

On July 28, a very similar burglary took place at this business, where firearms were also stolen.

Based on some similarities, investigators are working to determine if the cases are connected to one another. Investigators continue working with the business to find out who is responsible for these crimes.

Anyone with information leading to the arrest of this burglary suspect is eligible for a financial reward of up to $1,000. Those with information are asked to call Crime Solvers at 540-574-5050.
